

WHICH SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES SOUND INTERESTING?

Mark the sports and activities that interest you, and then consider finding out more about them by researching the Internet. Be sure to type your city and state into your search, so you can find local opportunities. Make phone calls and ask questions. Use the next page to take organized notes. Ask your parent or guardian which activities they might be willing to help support as far as cost, gear and transportation. You may need to call the local bus company if transportation is a problem, or carpool with teammates.
